WASHINGTON NEWS.

A CRISP LETTER FROM CHANDLER.

Secretary of the Navy, to Ex-Congressman Chandler, of Virginia, in regard to the latter's suggestion about reforms in the Norfolk Navy Yard—Other Topics.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 22.—The Post will publish to-morrow a letter from Secretary Chandler to ex-Congressman Chandler, of Virginia, in reply to a communication received from the latter, calling the attention of the Secretary to the Norfolk Navy Yard. Secretary Chandler after answering the charges concerning the alleged violation of the laws says: "The tone of your letter, which you have made public, indicates you take a very strong interest in the reformation of the Navy Yard at Norfolk. Your long familiarity with the yard as a constant candidate for Congress since 1873, seeking special support from the voters there employed, will undoubtedly enable you to make many more valuable suggestions for the improvement of a yard, therein which will gladly be received and considered. That you should now, for the first time, invite the attention of the Department and the public to such abuses after you have ceased to expect any personal benefit from the management of the yard is the most commendable performance of public duty by a private citizen."

Very respectfully,
W. E. CHANDLER,
Secretary of the Navy.

BALANCE OF TRADE.
Exports and Imports This Year More Favorable to Us than Last Year.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—A table prepared at the Treasury Department shows the change in the exports and imports for the first nine months of this year compared with 1882. Our importation of coffee increased over 60,000,000 pounds, while tea fell off more than 7,000,000. Rice has increased nearly 25,000,000 pounds. Cotton goods show a large falling off, especially in jeans and drillings, which have decreased more than half. Steel rails are less by 88,000 tons. Wool, both raw and manufactured, shows a large per cent of increase. In general the increase has been $18,000,000 from $227,000,000 to $245,000,000.

In exports Indian corn has fallen off, and wheat has increased. Cotton shows a gain of $500,000,000 pounds sent abroad, and a large per cent of increase. In general the increase has been $18,000,000 from $227,000,000 to $245,000,000.

At this moment, on the morning of the 23rd of May, the warship comes the awful thought that O'Donovan Rossa may have swallowed a clock and secreted himself in the imperial crown. In which case the Romanoff might have his head blown off.

Mr. Henry S. Walker did take a great deal of Greenback strength to the Democratic party, as his Democratic friends predicted he would, what became of the Democratic strength in the Third district? Perhaps a bill of discovery would find it.

The back counties are being heard from. They are arriving in town with revolvers in their hands, gunning for the Board of Equalization. It is to be hoped that no ill may befall our good friend, his Honor Ex-celency, who does whatever he does for the comfort and behoof of the Democratic party.

UPPER COUNTY was thrown into the Do do district to make sure of making it that kind of a district, and to make sure of holding the First District in bondage. But the first burst the bonds, and Upshur is where she can help to lead the Third out of the darkness of Bourbonism. It is coming to pass that the Democracy will not be able to gerrymander us out of a victory in West Virginia.

That splendid monument of engineering skill, the East River bridge, which is to unite the cities of New York and Brooklyn, is to be opened to-morrow, notwithstanding the fact that Her Majesty of England and sundry other persons were born on the 24th of May. If the authorities had given way before the clamor of the handful of idiots who wanted the affair postponed, they would have fallen beneath contempt.

CAPTAIN PHIL SNYDER comes up to Wheeling smiling after his narrow escape from the jaws of defeat. It happens that the Mayor of Charleston and Delegate Brown are also on hand to see what can be done about that duplicitous assassin. The shot from Wheeling has made trouble in Kanawha, as elsewhere, and if this kind of thing is to go on there are some hitherto ferent Democrats who want to know about it.

PERHAPS it is just as well that General Crook is so far away in his pursuit of the hostile Indians that he cannot know of the heavy fire in his rear. "Indian fighters" who do heavy campaigning about the Washington hotels are afraid that he is making the mistake of his life. They can't see how he can get the Indians into a fight, or laying out them in a can't imagine how he can get out. Well, if they are in so great a hurry that they can't wait and see it might relieve the suspense if they would hurry to the seat of war and take observations on the spot. Crook may miss it, but it will not be for lack of courage or sagacity.

WHEN Captain Snyder says, "there was not a county in which we got out our full strength," he refers to former strength, some of which the Democratic party never will be able to count again if the Republicans of the Third District persevere in their pool work. There is a steady growth and a marked change in that district, and the gains are not to Captain Snyder's party. Captain Snyder admits that in some counties the Republicans polled a much larger vote than they ever did before. This can not be explained away by saying that the Democrats were so busy with their corn-planting that they couldn't get to the polls. It is a positive Republican gain which would not have been impaired in any way if the Democratic farmers had decided to make no corn crop this year. Such explanations do not explain the Republicans of the Third District are only beginning to feel their strength and to organize to make it effective. They are well started on their way to victory, and in the next campaign they will make even better use of their fighting chance. The time is not far distant when the Third District will contest with the First the right to carry the Republican banner. There can be no jealousy in so friendly a rivalry.

Death of Judge Pearce.
BALTIMORE, Md., May 22.—A special from Hagerstown says: George Pearce, Associate Judge of the Circuit Court of the Allegany Circuit, was found dead in his bed this morning. Judge Pearce resided in Cumberland.

ordered to join his regiment, an officer upon General Sherman's staff.

The Attorney General has given an opinion to the Secretary of the Treasury that under the provisions of the act approved March 3, 1883, no tax can be collected on capital and deposits in National Banks since the first day of last January, and no tax on capital and deposits in State banks or private banks since the first of last December.

Mr. Ingersoll resumed his address to the jury in the State route case yesterday morning. Apparent inconsistencies in Riddell's story of Dorsey's letter appointing Riddell to be faithful to him were pointed out and commented upon. He declared Riddell's testimony was proof in itself, that Dorsey never wrote such a letter, and that the Albatross Hotel interview was a fabrication.

Ex-Representative Crowley of New York was in Washington, yesterday, the first time since he resigned his appointment as special attorney of the department to prosecute the South Carolina election fraud case. Mr. Crowley is here on legal business representing the claims of persons in Buffalo, against the Treasury Department. He denies the story that he has had a difficulty with the President.

The Star says: "The New York friends of Jack Cole, of the Jeannette crew, are endeavoring to raise money enough to have him removed from the Government insane asylum, and sent on an ocean voyage, as recommended by Dr. Godding. James Gordon Bennett consents to give $50 a month for the care of Cole. Cole's case is pronounced hopeless, as long as he remains in the asylum. He has attempted to kill his attendant two or three times."

The recent raid upon Dr. Loring, Commissioner of Agriculture, by the friends of Professor Collier, late chemist of the department, will not amount to anything, Collier was insolent, and he was removed. The Commissioner there is reason to think, had consulted with the President before he demanded Mr. Collier's removal. The friends of the latter are striving to obtain petitions from the voters of the State to the President, asking that Dr. Loring be removed. There is no reason to think that these petitions will be favorably considered. The reinstatement of Mr. Collier would mean the resignation of Dr. Loring, and the President has no desire to appoint a successor.

THE WHITE SULPHUR CASE.

Chief Justice Waite Begins the Hearing in the Matter.

PARKERSBURG, May 22.—The White Sulphur Springs case came up for argument this afternoon, at three o'clock, with Chief Justice Waite on the bench. A preliminary statement of the conflict of jurisdiction between Judge Jackson's and Judge Bond's courts was made, but owing to the absence of important papers the further hearing of the case was adjourned until to-morrow. Among the counsel present are Judge Robinson and Major Page, of Richmond, representing the White Sulphur Springs Company; Judge Marshall, of Richmond, representing the Hoge interests. There are also present Col. Gordon, Thomas Tabb, Tazewell Ellett, Judge E. H. Fitzhugh and A. L. Boulware, the Receiver appointed by Judge Bond.

THE HARDEN TRAGEDY.

The Arrest of the Murderer at Winchester, Va.—Witnesses Held.

OAKLAND, Md., May 22.—The State's Attorney on Friday received information that John Smith the murderer of Josiah Harden, was seen on Thursday, a few miles from Keyser, W. Va. Traveling towards Romney, giving his name as John White, and stating that from there he intended to go to Winchester, Va. He immediately telegraphed to the Chief of Police at the latter place a description of Smith, with the request to look out for and arrest him. On Friday night the Chief of Police, who is a friend of the murderer, telegraphed to the State's Attorney, saying that he had arrested the murderer, and that he was now in his custody. LABOR DIFFICULTIES.

PATTERSON, N. J., May 22.—Over one hundred of the silk weavers of the city of Patterson, N. J., struck for an advance of ten per cent yesterday. The strike is sanctioned by the silk weavers' Friendly and Protective Society of America. It is the first time that the weavers of this city have struck for a raise in wages. The operators refused to work at the strike, and the men struck for a raise in wages. The operators refused to work at the strike, and the men struck for a raise in wages.

LETTER POSTAGE.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The Postmaster General today issued an order, to take effect on the 1st of July next, with respect to what is known as "held for postage matter." The order provides that "whenever any letter, prepaid at less than one full rate of postage, or any parcel of third or fourth class matter not fully prepaid, and being otherwise mailable, is deposited at a postoffice of the first, second or third class, the postmaster of such postoffice shall be the duty of the postmaster to send to the addressee an official postal card containing a notice of the detention, and a request to remit the proper amount of postage to entitle the letter to be forwarded to its destination. This provision applies only to matter which does not bear the card or address of the sender. Such card matter should be returned immediately to the party mailing it, as prescribed by existing regulations."

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Deputy Commissioner Rodgers was acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue yesterday, and will continue to act in that capacity until the arrival of the newly appointed Commissioner.

The investigation of the affairs in the office of Supervising Architect Hill will begin this morning. Mr. Murch has been informed Assistant Secretary New, Chairman of the committee, that he is ready to proceed. He will be assisted in conducting the case before the committee by Mr. J. S. Blair, of the Department of Justice.

Quite recently a prominent army officer was ordered from Washington to join his regiment in the field at his own request, as stated in the official orders. The fact then comes to light that he had sold his pay account to no less than three or four bank ing concerns which make a practice of discounting army officers pay. The name of Colonel A. P. THE PIVOTAL STATE.

A CHAPTER ON BUCKEYE POLITICS.

No Scarcity of Good Republican Time-Jugglers Leading the Republican Race—Democratic Phylloxera With Their Own Medals—Geddes' Cabaret Weighed.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

COLUMBUS, O., May 22.—Good people who are worrying over the Republican outlook in Ohio, are unnecessarily giving themselves trouble. There is not much noise in the Republican camp as in many former campaigns, but there is fully as much work being done, and just as good results will follow. Governor Foster is the target at which the Democratic press is aiming all its abuse. All sorts of clap-trap stories are being circulated, and special effort is being made to influence Republicans against him, on the plea that he is managing the campaign for solely selfish ends, and will, if it is necessary to his success, sacrifice the State to the United States Senate. A few Republican papers, notably the Sandusky Register, a chronic kicker, is helping on this cry. But the great majority of the party care little for it, and it will make no appreciable impression on the convention to be soon to meet.

CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

The candidates for gubernatorial honors this year, if not numerous are unusually good. Such men as Foraker, Lawrence, Turney and Walcutt, are recognized as being in the field of Ohio Republicans, and the simple fact that they are candidates, should give assurance that the party in Ohio is in good shape, and is confident of electing its ticket. Any one of these men would make an acceptable candidate, and satisfactory Governor. The tide seems, however, to be setting in for Foraker. He is a young man, comparatively, who has been in the State for some time, and is well known throughout southern and central Ohio, and is as good a campaigner as Foster. Foraker is a college man, a son-in-law of Hon. S. S. Bates, an ex-member of Congress, and a heavy iron manufacturer of Jackson county, and is popular with all classes. Unless some unforeseen event militates against it, there seems no doubt of his nomination.

The Democratic field is not full of that abounding peace and brotherly feeling that should characterize children of the same family. During the winter and early spring the Democrats were greatly excited over what really did appear to be a tidal wave of popular feeling against the Republican party, and in the enthusiasm of the hour, announced their intention of carrying Governor. John G. Geddes, of the Cincinnati News, and angry because he did not get the nomination, and who did not say so. The rural press with visions of a far off White House, and kaleidoscopic views of postoffices, repeated the cry, and the sober truth is that not a few of the Democratic leaders are now looking back with regret at the folly of their millenium was about to dawn. Half a score of men, each willing to act as an amateur moose for the party, came to the front, and then the fight began. The Enquirer, some of the papers in this wide, Republic, and angry because he did not get the nomination, and who did not say so. and I consented. But I shall do nothing to create a "boom" for me at the Convention. If I am nominated I shall take it as a great compliment, but I shall not set my great policy there must be vim, vigor and dash in it. We must not go around apologizing for the Scott Law, but we must enthusiastically stand by it—proclaim its principle as our battle-cry, and march right in with the masses of the timid, weak-kneed Republicans, Judge."

"There is no reason for Republicans to be timid and weak-kneed. The Scott Law is just. The tax is very moderate, and not crushing heavy as in many Democratic States—in Missouri, for instance. Everywhere the people are acknowledging the justice and the wisdom of the Scott Law. Even Democrats, very many of them, say so, only for party's sake they have to oppose it. In the main the masses are coming around. There is no doubt about this. They refuse to be lashed into fury, as they were over the Pond Law. I had a great change over the Rhine favorable to the Republican party's camp last night. When I saw a German that a thing is just and right you have his support. Didn't the brewers and the liquor men say during the Pond Law excitement that it was not taxation which they opposed, but the untold appendages of the tax? That injustice should appear in the Scott Law. The business is legal. The Germans who are earning a dollar or a dollar and a half a day are asking themselves where is the injustice of taxing the saloon keepers who have been tax free for thirty years."

INTERVIEW WITH JUDGE GEDDES.

CINCINNATI, May 22.—Judge Geddes, an aspirant for the Democratic nomination for Governor, being in the city a reporter interviewed him on his prospects.

"Are you here on private business?"

"Well, yes. I shall meet a few friends in the morning, and then I shall be off."

"No politics, building fences or anything of that sort?"

"No. My only chance for the nomination is to win."

"First-class, I think. Everything looks well in the country."

"Some people say you are a Prohibitionist?"

"They are just as far out of the way as any other assertions."

"Geddes had a kind word to say for everybody. He will remain in the city for a day or two, and may turn a trick or two in the way of securing support from Hamilton county before he returns to his rural home."

A TRAIN WRECKER.

READING, Pa., May 22.—Marshall Heiler and Officer Boone, of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Police, disguised as drovers, made a trip to the Welsh Mountains, in Lancaster county, and captured there last night a boy about fourteen years of age. They charged him with placing the plank on the Reading and Columbia Railroad which caused the terrible wreck of the engine and passenger train near Ephrata, on Monday night last.

The boy, named Jacob Gangway, had been working for him, but had left on Wednesday for Ephrata, where he boarded the freight train coming in the direction of Reading. The officers had been looking for him, and when they saw him, they made a dash for him, and he fled. He was captured near the bridge over the railroad cut near where the accident occurred and saw the terrible wreck. When arrested he said his name was "Anson," and that he was a drover, and was on his way to the city of Philadelphia. He was brought to this city. To-morrow morning he will be taken to the Lancaster county jail. He said to the officers that he boarded a freight train on Wednesday morning and was on his way to the city of Philadelphia. He was brought to this city. To-morrow morning he will be taken to the Lancaster county jail.
